NATIONAL JUNIOR RED ANGUS ASSOCIATION (JRA)
PHOTOGRAPHY CONTEST

The purpose of this event is to encourage junior Red Angus members to display their communication skills and style through the creative display of a message or feeling through photography.

Submit photos of Red Angus cattle, breeders, farms, ranches, field days, events, show and sale scenes or extraordinary shots. An "outside the cattle industry" judge will judge photos on creativity and composition. All entries must contain a minimum of one Red Angus animal.

Winners will be selected in three age divisions: Junior --- 11 and younger; Intermediate --- 12 --- 16 and senior --- 17 --- 20 years of age if a minimum of 5 entries per division are entered. In the event that fewer than 5 entries are received in any division, photos will be grouped into the next age division for judging. All photos will be displayed during the National Red Angus Convention. Winning photos in each division will be published in the JRA eNews online junior newsletter and ARA Magazine.

JRA members who submit entries in the Photography Contest in the same calendar year as attending Round--- Up will receive points toward the Best All Around selection at Round--Up. However, placing's in the photo contest will not be considered in the Best All Around calculation.
