2008/2009 NATIONAL JUNIOR SHOW

Yes, this is the year that - due to the rotation and the fiscal year of the RAAA - that we have two national shows in the same calendar year.

The 2008/2009 National Junior Show is scheduled for 8:30 a.m., Tuesday, October 14, during the N.I.L.E., Billings, Montana. Marty Ropp, Bozeman, Montana, will serve as the junior show judge. The Montana Junior and Red Angus Associations are busily planning to host the National Shows. For more information on the N.I.L.E. and entries, go to: www.thenile.org or call 406/256-2495. You may also e-mail: info@thenile.org.

RED ANGUS NATIONAL CONVENTION

The National Red Angus Convention is scheduled for Wednesday, September 17 through Friday, September 19

in Cheyenne, Wyoming. The JRA Board conducts fundraisers throughout the year, but especially during Convention, to support the programs and activities of the JRA. This year, JRA fundraisers at Convention will include:

State Basket Auction - each JRA Board member and any other state or regional group who is interested - will put together a basket of items for silent auction. The items may represent that particular state or may have a common theme.

Red Angus pottery plates and bowls - At the '08 Convention, the JRA Board presented their home-made desserts for auction - each displayed on unique, ceramic plates and platters made especially for Convention. At this time, the JRA doesn't know if desserts will be included but more of the one-of-a-kind, Red Angus pottery plates, bowls and mugs will be offered at silent auction.

NEW JRA FUNDRAISER

The JRA Board is working on the December ARA Magazine, which is traditionally the Junior Spotlight issue.

As a fundraiser for 2008, the JRA Board is asking for financial donations to support all junior programs and activities. In appreciation for their support, those making donations at specified levels will receive bonus ads in the December issue.

Donation levels are as follows:

The advertising pages will be laid out much like the sponsor brochure from the 2007 Convention in Kansas.

Ad space is limited! If you are interested in supporting the juniors with a financial donation and receiving an appreciation ad, please contact Dawn Bernhard at: dawn@redangus.org or 525/679-4006.

2009 ROUND-UP

Here we come!

Though we have just completed Round-Up 2008, it is never too soon to plan for the next Junior Red Angus adventure! Plus, with all the camps, sports and other opportunities for young people, you may want to reserve the dates on your calendar for joining other Red Angus juniors for a week's worth of Red Angus cattle and people, ranch tours, university tours, meat processing facilities, feed mills and fun!

Round-Up 2009 is scheduled for Tuesday, June 23 through Saturday, June 27 with everyone heading home on Sunday, June 28. We will begin and end our South Dakota tour in Sioux Falls. Though still in the early planning stages, tentative stops include: South Dakota State University, Brookings; Gill Red Angus, JD Red Angus, Bieber Red Angus, Peterson Broken Heart Ranch, Genex bull stud, and a meat processing facility. A barn dance is also in the scheduling as is staying in a bunk-house style lodge.

JRA 2008 Scholarship Winners

Alison Baue

*$500 Red Angus
Association of America
Scholarship*

Alison Baue, daughter of J.Allen and Ruth

Baue, recently graduated from Hysham High School, and plans to attend South Dakota School of Mines & Technology, Rapid City, S.D. She will pursue a degree in Industrial Engineering.

Alison's grandfather, Ole Redland, gave her a heifer when she was eight, this was the beginning of her breeding program. She has been able to expand her registered herd to five, and the bull sale earnings have given her a good start toward her college education.

She has served as the Montana Jr. Red Angus queen and represented the breed at Midland bull Test Sale. She is currently a member of the Montana Jr. Red Angus and the national JRA. Alison has participated in the JRA essay competition and photo competition in the past. She shows cattle in Montana through 4-H and has earned Grand Champion Steer, Grand Champion Heifer, Grand Champion Bull and Grand Champion Cow/Calf as well as overall Breeding Beef Grand Champion.

During High School, she was active in 4-H and FFA, holding various offices and participation in multiple events and competitions. She was a member of the National Honor Society, Varsity Volleyball, Basketball, Track, Math Team, Science Club, Spanish Club and Band.

She is looking forward to this next step in her life, and following her parent's encouragement to make a difference in some way each and every day.

Daniel Fehrman

*$500 Dee Sonstegard
Scholarship*

Daniel Fehrman, Lake Benton, Minn., is the son of Paul and the late Lori Fehrman. He is a graduate of RTR High School, and plans to attend South Dakota State University, Brookings, S.D., in the fall and major in Animal Science.

Daniel has been very involved with the Minnesota Junior Association.

He was a Red Angus Ambassador candidate, and helped fundraise and promote the breed. He tries to be a good role model for the younger kids and get them started in the Red Angus breed.

Daniel grew up with the Red Angus Breed and believes his own herd has the potential to expand and do well in the future. He has won many award at various shows. He has been involved with 4-H since he was in Kindergarten, and was on the FFA Meats Judging Team for four years.

He was active in High School with football and the National Honor Society. He serves as an altar server in his church and is a member of the youth choir. He also enjoys League Softball.

Daniel plans on being involved with Red Angus in the future. After completing college, he would like to return home and ranch with his dad, and eventually start his own cow-calf operation.

Regina Fessler

*$500 Roy McPhee
Scholarship*

has completed her first year at Santa Rosa Junior College, Santa Rosa, Calif., studying Nursing.

Regina bought her first Red Angus heifer in 2001 and became a member of the JRA in 2002. She has participated in three RoundUps and received the Sal Forbes Traveling Female for 2004-2005. As a ten year old girl, she chose a Red Angus heifer because she was pretty, but since, has realized it is a breed with many advantages. She has received many awards from showing her cattle including Supreme Champion Aged Cow/Calf Pair at Sonoma-Marin Fair 2007 and Outstanding Beef Cattle Exhibitor at SMF 2007.

She has been a member of 4-H for 11 years. She is currently the teen leader for the beef project and treasurer for her club.

Her goal is to complete a bachelor's degree in nursing at the University of San Francisco and work in intensive care or an emergency room. She plans to keep some of her Red Angus cows during college and will support young people in 4-H and FFA.

Emily Frasier

*$500 Red Angus
Association of America
Scholarship*

Emily Frasier is a recent graduate of Limon High School. She is the daughter of Joe and Cindy Frasier, Limon, Colo.

Emily joined the JRA seven years ago after purchasing her first registered Red Angus heifer. She was influenced by her sister Kelsey (a JRA member) and her Dad. She participated in three Stockgrower's Contests, and in 2003 received the Communications Award and in 2006, she was Reserve Champion, Senior Division.

She raises and shows Red Angus breeding beef at the Lincoln County fair in Hugo, Colo., for her 4-H projects, and has won Grand Champion Breeding Beef three years in a row. She is a 13 year member of the Rocking 4-H club and has held several leadership roles. She was chosen to represent Lincoln County on the Washington Citizen Focus Trip in 2007.

She was involved in many activities in High School including Student Council, National Honor Society, Tri-M National Music Honorary, volleyball and golf. Music is another passion, and she has been active in marching band, concert and pep bands. She also received a Superior rating on her piano solo this year.

Her future plans include attending a 4 year university, majoring in Landscape Design in the College of Agriculture. She is currently running her Red Angus registered herd with her family's herd in Colorado, and plans to maintain and grow her herd in the future.
