

Committee Extends Call for Board Nominations

Members who have a vision for the future and a desire to cultivate the business of the Red Angus Association of America will have the opportunity to run for the Board of Directors this September at the National Red Angus Convention in Colorado Springs.

The Nominating Committee encourages interested members to consider running for those seats that are up for re-election or will be vacated due to term limits. A term is three years with a two-term limit.

Directors are elected to the volunteer leadership position in their respective Area or Regional Caucuses during the general session of the convention.

Responsibilities

The BOD leads and oversees the affairs and business of the Association as outlined in the RAAA Bylaws.

RAAA directors are leadership volunteers and are not reimbursed for their time nor receive a salary. Expenses may be compensated for scheduled BOD meetings which are held a minimum of three times a year – January, June and September. Conference calls are scheduled as required to conduct business between BOD meetings.

The BOD adheres to the Core Tenets, Mission and Vision of the RAAA for guidance in all decisions as they follow the course set by the Strategic Plan. Members of the BOD also populate and chair the various RAAA committees. The Core Tenets and committee listings are found online at redangus.org/association.

Members may access the entire Bylaws and Strategic Plan by logging on to REDSPro and clicking the link to "RAAA Association ByLaws" and "RAAA Strategic Plan 2016-2020" on the right-hand side of the window.

Qualifications

Candidates must be residents of – or have a primary mailing address in – the Area or Region they represent, and must be a member of RAAA in good standing for a minimum of three years.

The President must be a member of the current Board of Directors or has served as a director in the past. Complete qualifications are outlined in the RAAA Association Bylaws.

Throw Your Hat in the Ring

Members interested in running for the BOD should contact a member of the nominating committee – populated by the past three RAAA presidents and one current Board member – and express their intentions.

Candidates are encouraged to submit a short biography and photo for the July/August ARA Magazine by emailing Editorial Coordinator Tracey Koester at tracey@redangus.org by the July 1 deadline.

Members may also run from the floor at convention.
