It was a standing-room-only crowd for Loonan Stock Farm's 41st Annual Private Treaty Sale. The market was very active with the bulls and heifers selling very well. Many repeat buyers along with a lot of new buyers came to purchase breeding stock.

The top-selling bull, a SimAngus son of Heardsman, sold to Paul Jones of Clarinda, Iowa, for $12,000.

A son of Beckton Hill Top sold to Ken Willson of Canton, N.C., for $7,100.

A son of Beckton Heritage sold to Andy Larson of Red Oak, Iowa, for $6,700.

A son of Heardsman went to Larry Wedemeyer of Adair, Iowa, for $6,700.

The top-selling heifer was a daughter of Heardsman selling to Cydney Hembry of Osceola, Iowa, for $3,000.

The volume bull buyer was Ken Wilson of Canton, N.C., with seven head.

The volume heifer buyers were Craig Hupfeld of Liscomb, Iowa, with 13 head, and Steven Neilson of Missouri with nine.
